Solicitors

Protect your business

Our long term commitment to, and understanding of, the solicitor's profession means that we have the experience to offer the right kind of advice at the right time and we can access all the major insurance markets, including Lloyds, to find the right solution for you.

Our offering to solicitors whilst competitive, includes a comprehensive range of additional benefits that truly respond to the challenges law firms face. These benefits are also ideally suited to the needs of firms from the entire professional spectrum from sole practitioners to multiple partner firms.

Solicitors require more than a general insurance broker. What you need is a professional liability risk management specialist, one that understands the ever changing, and ever increasing, value and risk placed on the advice you give.
